ō Lord God Almighty, you have made all the peoples of the earth for your glory, to serve you in freedom and in peace: Give to the people of our country a zeal for justice and the strength of forbearance, that we may use our liberty in accordance with your gracious will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. HAVE A SAFE HOLIDAY WEEKEND

ENVELOPES and COLLECTION - Please use your envelopes or the ones provided in the pews. The collection is your offering/sacrificial gift and brought to be included in the sacrifice of the Mass. It's not just bill paying, it's your sacrifice. When we give gifts for birthday/Christmas/life events, we wrap it up or find a special card and envelope, so too your Sunday gifts. Even if you do direct deposit, money transfer contribution, it is still symbolic to place something in the collection, even an empty envelope, sealed with a prayer.

WANTED - A leader for our "Garden Angels" ! We have several angels willing to plant, weed, mulch, etc. our church grounds and gardens, but need a leader. If you have a bit of garden expertise and could provide some direction, call the church office to volunteer.

LAMB HOUSE - The Lamb House is in need of towels í bath, hand and wash cloths. If you have any that are still in decent condition or if you are looking to get rid of your old and purchase some new, consider the Lamb House.

THANK YOU! - I would like thank everyone who joined me in celebrating my 40th anniversary of the priesthood on June 26th. All the cards and the best wishes were greatly appreciated. The reception was just wonderful. Please keep me in your prayers as I will keep you in mine. Thank you so much.

Fr. Dave Buescher

STEWARDSHIP - "Let all Your works give You thanks, Oh Lord, and let Your faithful ones bless You," says the psalmist. Stewardship is this "attitude of gratitude" for the many gifts God has given us.

The Mass is not changing, the Translation is. We are one holy, Catholic, Apostolic Church. The One means we all celebrate the same Mass from a Common Latin Missal. After Vatican II the Mass was quickly translated into English. Since 1985 the Church has been reworking the Translation of the Ritual Books: Funeral and RCIA in 1989; Book of Blessings 1995; Lectionary of Readings 2002; others will follow; and now the Missal with all of the Prayers of Mass. Officially the New Translation will be first used Advent of 2011. There will be minor changes for the people's part of the Mass. The New Translation tries to be more accurate to the original Latin. Whenever a Mass prayer or response comes from the scripture, the English will be closer, that affects the Gloria, Holy and a few other prayers. In the bulletin we will offer on-going articles about the New Translation of the Mass. Those who are over 55 may actually recognize some of the new translation, it is very similar to those we had in the old missals that were Latin and English on facing pages.

tary, and those who are shut in and unable to attend Mass. Prayers will be l, but the Prayer Line continues to pray for all individuals until we hear other- ame listed in the bulletin. For more information, please call Debby Peirce at 317-9395.

THIRD EDITION OF THE ROMAN MISSAL (Paul Turner) -

The Roman Missal is the official book of texts for the Mass in the Roman Catholic Church. The first book to bear the title came out in 1474. After the Second Vatican Council, the Scripture readings were removed from the missal and bound in separate lectionaries. The rest was called the "Sacramentary" in English, but its Latin title has always been Missale Romanum.

The heart of the Roman Missal is the Order of Mass, the words and rubrics (instructions) that pertain to every Mass from the song at the beginning to the dismissal at the end. Most of the book contains the priest's prayers that change from one Mass to the next: the collect (opening prayer), the prayer over the offerings, and the postcommunion prayer. A new set appears every Sunday, and often every day. The Roman Missal opens with a general instruction explaining how and why the Mass should go the way it does. It includes a number of appendices, including prayers the priest may say privately before and after Mass.

The first edition of the post-Vatican II Missale Romanum came out in 1970. The second edition was released in 1975. Pope John Paul II promulgated the third edition of the missal in 2000, the jubilee year of our redemption, but the book was not published until 2002. In 2008, the Vatican issued an emended third edition - removing a few prayers, inserting a few more, and correcting some typographical errors.

The contents of the missal have been lightly expanded from one edition to the next. Each new edition contains clarifications to the rubrics and additional prayers. Each was promulgated on a Holy Thursday. The missal stands in the deep tradition of the Eucharist that we celebrate at the command of Jesus on the night before he died.
